A book that will serve as a tool to help women discover and implement their purpose.

With over four decades as an accomplished speaker and global trainer, Sue Corbin is thrilled to announce the launch of her self-published non-fiction titled Purpose-On-Purpose. This book is created as a map for women to discover and implement their life-fulfilling purpose. Published on February 6, 2022, it is the first book in a 5-book series titled, Say Yes For Success. Purpose-On-Purpose provides a step-by-step guide through which women can find answers to life's most critical questions, including questions like Who am I? What is my purpose in life? What do I need to do to start living a meaningful and fulfilling life? The book covers different areas where purpose can be materialized to help women become relevant in the paths designed for them.

In a world of uncertainties, there is this human compulsion to become something entirely different from what was originally designed. In fact, most people tend to hold on to the pressures of life and forcefully tread a different path. In the process, they either completely or partially, lose sight of their mission in life. Fortunately, some are able to discover their life path in time, while others, unfortunately, never do. Therefore, Sue Corbin, in Purpose on Purpose, has chosen to help women identify their purpose so that they can live a more meaningful life. As a result, she created this amazing book to give the right answers to those on a quest to discover the truth. Purpose-On-Purpose is a friendly, empowering, and easy-to-use guide that will take women, chapter by chapter, to their gifts and treasures and provide ways in which they can share their purpose to the world.

Armed with a passion to help women live a life of fulfillment, Sue Corbin created a platform for women looking to enrich and empower their lives. The platform, EnVisioned Futures, is a community where women can create new opportunities for themselves, build and sustain healthy relationships, and discover a niche where they can live the life they desire and deserve. Through EnVisioned Futures, women can have unlimited access to psychic readings, coaching sessions, live classes, webinars, and online training. These exciting packages are geared towards educating, motivating, and encouraging women to live their best lives as they offer satisfactory service to humanity.

“Sue Corbin has been an accomplished speaker and global trainer for over 4 decades. As a success facilitator, she has created numerous training programs and given countless presentations on personal and leadership development, success achievement, sales and marketing, health and wellness, and spirituality. She has earned various awards, plaques, and trophies for her success in business, but she always states that the accolades she received were based on the efforts and accomplishments of the many individuals whom she worked with and trained. Sue realized that the best way to reach out for women of the world was to create a book series. She is well respected because of her knowledge, expertise, and approachable style,” said Sue’s spokesperson.
